FARMS Preliminary Reports

The Foundation for Ancient Research and Mormon Studies (FARMS) was founded in 1979 as a clearinghouse to distribute scholarly articles focused on Latter-day Saint scripture. Within a few years, FARMS began collecting and distributing its own “Preliminary Reports.” These were said to consist of “tentative papers reflecting substantial research [that was] not yet ready for final publication.” FARMS made them available “to be critiqued and improved and to stimulate further research.”

Having since absorbed FARMS into the Willes Center for Book of Mormon Studies, the Maxwell Institute offers the FARMS Preliminary Reports here in that same spirit. Although their quality is uneven, they represent the energy and zeal of those who sought to enrich our understanding of LDS scripture.

If you possess copies of Preliminary Reports that are not included on our website, please contact us at maxwell_institute@byu.edu to help us provide the most complete collection possible.

THE BOOK OF MORMON: A WITNESS FOR CHRIST

THE BOOK OF MORMON: A WITNESS FOR CHRIST

The Book of Mormon has been preserved to come forth in these latter days to convince the "Jew and Gentile that Jesus is the Christ, the Eternal God." Its purpose is to verify the divine Sonship of the Nazarene to those who "...ask with a sincere heart, with real intent, having faith in Christ...." (Moroni 10:4.)

The divinity of Christ is proclaimed by prophets in the Book of Mormon. This record, kept by an ancient people living from 600 B.C. to 421 A.D., has come forth as a powerful second witness of Christ. From the time that Lehi left the land of Jerusalem (600 B.C.) until Moroni deposited the plates in the Hill Cumorah (421 A.D.), this account remained in the possession of Lehi and his posterity. The prophets from this lineage wrote of their knowledge, faith, and testimony of Christ. Through the faithful efforts of the prophets and through divine intervention, the promised stick of Joseph as prophesied in Ezekiel, known in latter-days as the Book of Mormon, has come forth:

Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph [Book of Mormon], which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellows, and will put them with him, even with the stick of Judah [Bible], and make them one stick, and they shall be one in mine hand. (Ezekiel 37:19.)

Thus the Book of Mormon came forth to combine with the testimony of the Bible as a witness of the divine mission of Jesus Christ.

The stick of Joseph has been available to the Jew and Gentile since 1830. It was translated by a seer chosen "to bring forth my word...and not to the bringing forth my word only, saith the Lord, but to the convincing them of my word, which shall have already gone forth among them."

(2 Nephi 3:11.) This seer was Joseph Smith, Jr. As a boy he saw a pillar of light directly over his head, above the brightness of the sun, which descended gradually until it fell upon him. When the light rested upon him he saw two Personages and heard the words, "This is My Beloved Son. Hear Him." (Joseph Smith 2:17.) Joseph Smith was prepared--not by man, but by the Lord--to be the translator of this second witness for Jesus Christ. He is known to Latter-day Saints as "a seer, a translator, a prophet, and apostle of Jesus Christ, an elder of the church through the will of God the Father, and the grace of [the] Lord Jesus Christ." (DC 21:1.)

Through the instrumentality of Joseph Smith, Jr., Nephi's intent in writing, "that I may persuade men to come unto the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, and be saved," (1 Nephi 19:10) is now a reality. The intense experience of the "difficulty of engraving... words upon plates" (Jacob 4:1) has proven fruitful, and the purpose of the Lord has been fulfilled as the word of God has "come forth unto the Gentiles, by the gift and power of the Lamb." (1 Nephi 13:35.)

The prophets of the Book of Mormon had a conviction of the divinity of Jesus, for they knew him. They did not gain this knowledge of Christ through research resulting in a comparison or contrast of the customs, characteristics, lifestyles, and mannerisms of Lehi's family with those living around the land of Jerusalem in 600 B.C. Nor did they gain knowledge of Christ through unearthed findings by archeologists such as skeletal remains, gold plates, cement highways, and places of worship in the Americas. Neither did they grasp a knowledge of Christ through acquaintance with Indian traditions, folklore, or legends of voyages and wars. Christ was revealed to the ancient prophets of the Book of Mormon by the power of the Holy Ghost.

Through the instrumentality of the Holy Ghost these prophets knew that their writings were to bear testimony that Jesus is the Christ. This they solemnly did with an average of every 1.7 verses mentioning a form of his name. They referred to him literally by one hundred and one different names--from the first reference to him as "Lord" in 1 Nephi 1:1 through to the final name in the Book of Mormon given him as "Eternal Judge" in Moroni 10:34. Each of the one hundred and one names signified to them a different attribute or characteristic of our God and was used appropriately to convey their recognition of who he is and what his mission represents. "Lord of Hosts" indicates that Christ is a man of war or a God of battles. "Lord Omnipotent" means that Christ is the Lord of all, possessing all power. "Holy One" signifies that he is holy and without sin, being perfect in all things. "God of the Whole Earth" reflects his universal interest in all men and their redemption. And "Savior" means that Christ came to save his people from their sins. The names given to our Lord take on new significance when they are approached through a thoughtful and a sensitive study of their meanings. His profound character, his singular mission, and his divine relationship to man are thereby more clearly revealed.

Further understanding of man's relationship to Christ, the central figure of the Book of Mormon, occurs through a study of the periods of apostasy, contention, and war. Fewer references to Christ are made during these periods of darkness, probably because his influence is lessened due to the unrighteous actions of man. (Alma 50-59.) During periods of peace, joy, and prosperity, which come through man's keeping the commandments, the names of Christ are used profusely, circumstances indicating the abundant presence of his spirit. (4th Nephi.) Thus, the righteous actions of the people bring the influence and blessings of Christ among them.

Being aware of the number of references to Christ, having an understanding of the meanings for each name, and knowing when his influence can be greatest upon the earth can inspire reverential awe for our Beloved Redeemer. The witness that the House of Israel desires, however, can be achieved only through a sacred witness. The conviction that Jesus is the Christ occurs only when God, the Eternal Father, manifests the truth of it "...by the power of the Holy Ghost." (Moroni 10:4.) To the prayerful, the sincere, and the questing Jew and Gentile, the Book of Mormon bears a powerful testimony that "Jesus is the Christ, the Eternal God."
